

Meet Eric Goodrich

Eric Goodrich is a speaker for the Minnesota Organization on Fetal Alcohol Syndrome (MOFAS). He is a Family Counselor for the Greater Minnesota Family Services. Eric has a BA in criminology, MS in criminal justice counseling, a Certificate of completion in chemical dependency counseling program, a Licensed Social Worker, and "Becoming a Love and Logic Parent" independent facilitator. He is an adoptive parent of a child affected by FASD. Eric has been working with children and families for nearly 27 years in an array of positions including child protection, school social work, chemical dependency counseling, anger management, parent educator and currently as an in-home family counselor; counseling severely emotionally disturbed children and their families in an effort to prevent out-of-home placements.

To Schedule a Training with Eric

If you would like Eric to come talk to your group, please contact Angie Dyer at MOFAS at 218-340-6147 or angie@mofas.org.

